tended the meeting of the George Washington Memorial Association, of which she is charter member, which held its sessions for three days at the Arlington, in Washington city, D. C. Mrs. Clubb was one of the vice-presidents of the National Board, where she proved a most efficient and active member, serving on committees of importance requiring ability. Mrs. Elyson and Mrs. Jeffreys returned to Richmond on Friday afternoon.

Miss Lelia Randolph Tatum has returned to her home, after an absence of several months.

Miss Ethel Davis, one of Southern Virginia's most charming young ladies, has returned to the city, and is visiting Mrs. John F. Winn, III north Fifth street.

Miss Willie Montgomery Winn, of Fluvanna county, is visiting Dr. and Mrs. John F. Winn, III north Fifth street.

Miss Annie Empie Sheppard, of Richmond, and Captain Warren Seymour Lurty, of Harrisonburg, were married at half past 5 o'clock Wednesday evening, the ceremony being performed by Right Rev. F. M. Whittle, Bishop of the Diocese of Virginia, assisted by Rev. William Meade Clark, rector of St. James church. The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Kate Sheppard, 611 east Leigh street, and, owing to recent bereavement, the utmost simplicity was observed. No invitations were issued, and, with the exception of Mrs. Joshua Empie and Miss Constance Peterkin, witnesses of the solemn and beautiful ceremony, all members of the household and family, Mrs. Sheppard entered the parlor with her two young nephews, Master Sheppard Potts and Master A. B. Gilgion Jr., the latter bearing the wedding ring upon a tiny white satin cushion. In its delicate triple circle of five gold were the wedding rings of the bride of great-grandmother, grandmother, and aunt, three generations of a family distinguished in Virginia history being thus represented.

Captain and Mrs. Lurty left on the 12:30 train for the North. The Itinerary of their honeymoon trip will probably include a visit to Canada, after the occupation.

Their place of residence during the winter will be Washington. The summer home will be Harrisonburg, the groom's wedding gift to his bride having been the deed to a lot upon which it is his purpose to erect a handsome house. Many good wishes follow the two, together with the regret that their future home will not be in Richmond.

Miss Sheppard is a granddaughter on the maternal side of Dr. Adam Empie, president of Williamsburg Mary College and first rector of St. James church. She is a daughter of the late James Sheppard, a prominent Virginian in his day. She has for years lived in the utmost seclusion, owing to delicate health, but through the persuasion of friends, has to a certain degree identified herself with the intellectual life of the fashionable set through membership in the Woman's Club and the Saturday, by each of which she is regarded as one of its most brilliant members. She is a woman of singular personal charm, fine gifts and unusual culture.

Miss Anne Tenant, who came to Richmond in order to attend the Richmond German, will remain in the city for some weeks. Mr. David Tenant will also spend the holidays in Richmond.

Miss Maria Williams has returned from school for the holidays, and is accompanied by several of her classmates.

Mr. Arthur Skeleton Willy will go to New York in order to lead the Wednesday Cotillion on the evening of January 1st. This dance is anticipated by the Southern set in the Metropolis as probably the most brilliant of the entire winter.

Miss Edna Young will entertain a party of friends at "West Brook" on New Year's eve.

Miss Allen Donnan was the hostess last week of the Seven-Hand Euchre Club, to whose weekly meetings its members learned to look forward with special pleasure.

Miss Edith Tunis, of Norfolk, was on Monday the guest of Mr. Robert Grover, coming to Richmond in order to attend the Richmond German. She returned to Norfolk yesterday.

Mr. Stephen Putney, who recently sustained a fall, resulting in painful injuries, is now much better, and will probably be out in a few days.

Mrs. Robert White, of Wheeling, W. Va., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Chiles Ferrall.

Miss Edith Fisher will leave shortly for Warson, N. C., where she will spend the holidays. She will be one of a large house party.

Mrs. Robert White, of Wheeling, W. Va., is the guest of Judge and Mrs. Herbert Curtis and his associates have kindly invited her to the cakewalk. Persons wishing to contribute to this tree can send their contributions to the hall the morning of the 25th.

Miss Hattie Buck Anderson and Mr. William Young were married at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, the ceremony which, owing to recent death in the family of the groom, was extremely quiet, being performed at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. F. B. Anderson, 9 south Second street.

Rev. Dr. Jere Witherspoon was the officiating clergyman. Owing to the peculiar circumstances of the case the idea of a wedding trip was abandoned and Mr. and Mrs. Young are now at home at 9 south Second street. The bride is much beloved by many friends, and the groom, who is a Canadian by birth, has won general esteem during his residence in this city. He holds a responsible position with the firm of R. G. Davis & Co., manufacturers of steel and iron employes. The fact that a private marriage was a necessity is cordially regretted by mutual friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boshier will spend Christmas day with relatives in Norfolk.

Mrs. James T. Patterson has removed to the handsome house formerly occupied by the late James T. Patterson, and residents in the neighborhood are much gratified.

Mrs. Mary Means and Miss Hattie Means of Roanoke, are visiting Colonel William H. Palmer.

The Junior Collision Club will give its Christmas dance to-morrow night at the Jefferson Hotel, and the occasion, it is expected, will be a particularly delightful one. Already the list of subscribers is fully one-third larger than at any preceding gathering of the season, and it is constantly receiving accessions from the ranks of the visiting contingent. Professor Tremper has prepared some beautiful new music, and one of the most popular german bands in the fashion show will lead on this night.

A meeting of the various chairmen on the recent bazaar for the benefit of the Virginia Home for Incurables will be held on Wednesday next at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Manson, 32 east Franklin street. At this meeting full reports of proceeds will be presented, and it is hoped there may be a large attendance.

Mrs. Alfred Harris, Tom Bolling, General Charles Anderson, Jo Lane Stern, E. C. Mayo, C. E. Smith, C. B. Antrim, W. B. Palmer, Willie Mayo, Wm. Emerson, Walter Johnson, Weston Stark, Willis Meade, Alfred Donnan, Churchill, and John Etheridge, Joe Anderson, St. George Anderson, Willie Ferguson, Stewart Bryan, Harrison Blair, Edward Robinson, Victor Williams, Lynwood Antrim, David Currie, Spencer Carter, Marie, S. N. Carter, Saunders Hobson, Leigh Page, Carter Branch, Jake Anderson, Arthur Wiley, Levin Joyner, Henry Baskerville, John George, John Atkinson, Geo. Gibson, Carlton McKey, Bob Campbell, Saunders Hobson.

Mrs. A. B. Camm will spend the Christmas holidays with friends in Louisville and is anticipating a delightful visit.

Among the informal clubs to whose members hours, none has a more delightful membership or is a source of more innocent pleasure than the Card Club at whose last meeting Miss Sophie DeSaussure was the hostess. The games are ever given at its meetings, which are weekly. The games are simply for diversion. The members of the club are Misses Fanny Bragg, Eliza Carniehill, Bertie Nolting, Gertie McGuire, Jessie and Nannie Dunlop, Elizabeth Weddin, Sophie DeSaussure, Helen Moseley, Annie Dryer, Elizabeth Christian and Tyler.

Mrs. John Munson is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henning, south Third street. The latter have been personally ill, but are now improving greatly.

Mrs. Matthew Pleasant, whose family weeks ago resulted in prolonged debility, is still confined to her room. Miss Latia Pleasant continues to improve, although very slowly.

Invitations are out to a card party to be given by Miss Rose Watkins during Christmas week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Morton, of Fort Worth, Tex., are in the city, stopping at Murphy's. Mrs. Morton was Miss Mary Field, a daughter of a prominent Fort Worth M. D., and Dr. Morton is a native of Charlotte county, Va., and an old Virginia Military Institute boy.

Miss Ruth Nelson Robins will spend the Christmas holidays with friends in Baltimore.
